ABOUT ME ✨

Greetings, I'm Kandiee Campbell—an experienced grief and transformational coach and the host of the Awaken Hope Radio Show. I specialize in guiding individuals through the intricate process of healing from loss and trauma.

Armed with a Master's degree in counseling and certified as a Happy for No Reason trainer, my professional background is complemented by personal resilience gained through overcoming my own experiences of loss and trauma. My purpose is to harness this wealth of knowledge to assist clients and radio listeners in finding peace and resolution, empowering them to cultivate lives brimming with happiness and fulfillment.

My mission is rooted in providing grief and transformational coaching, fostering an environment where individuals can heal from the inside out. I extend my unwavering support to those navigating the challenges of loss or trauma, with a shared objective of helping them unravel profound peace and resolution.

The ultimate goal is to equip individuals with the tools they need to lead lives that are not just happy but deeply fulfilling. Join me, and let's embark on a transformative healing journey.

STARTING MY JOURNEY

My journey with the “Awaken Hope” show began following a collaboration with Jack Canfield on a co-authored book. At the book launch, I had the privilege of meeting Dr. Allen Lycka, a compassionate MD from Canada, whose invaluable support led me to Brushwood Media Network to start my wonderful show.

The purpose of “Awaken Hope” is deeply rooted in the opportunity to assist people in navigating life’s challenges. I understand that life can be challenging and filled with unexpected events that can leave us feeling stuck. My aim is to equip others with practical strategies and tools to navigate through these situations, not to avoid them but to face them with resilience and a clear mindset.

BRINGING MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCE TO LIGHT

In July 2023, I embarked on the “Awaken Hope” show, sharing tools and strategies derived not just from textbooks but from my personal experiences. I draw on practical, hard-earned lessons, referencing my own journey through grief, including the loss of my daughter, father, mother, and beloved pets within a short span. When I share strategies, it’s not just a lesson; it’s a connection to real, lived experiences.

The heart of the show lies in providing listeners with tangible tools and strategies that they can apply in their own lives. It’s not about offering a quick fix; it’s about fostering a sense of hope and resilience, as demonstrated by the listener who found hope in a challenging time.

I am always looking to host new guests on the show. I think it’s so important for others to share their stories; It gives a different perspective for others to resonate with. If you have any upcoming projects, such as a new book, speaking engagement, or products and services, I am here to support you.

TESTIMONIALS

"Kandiee Campbell is a powerful voice for inspiration and transformation. Through The Awaken Hope Show, she creates a space where real conversations spark healing, resilience, and renewed faith. Having been a guest on her show, I experienced firsthand her warmth, deep empathy, and gift for drawing out meaningful stories. Kandiee doesn't just interview — she connects, uplifts, and ignites powerful dialogue. Her work is not just a podcast — it's a movement that encourages listeners to embrace their own journeys with courage and purpose."

"Being a celebrity often means being interviewed -- by the press and on media. One learns to "get through" things, but once in a while one gets to spend some time with someone special. Such as it was with you! You are intelligent, articulate, talented and made me feel welcome and encouraged me to be my best. Please ask me back as a guest!"

TESTIMONIALS

"So many shows today are about themselves. You let us know that you have been there where we are. It's not book knowledge but from the heart. Don't ever stop that. We love listening to the network as all the shows they play have the listener in mind. I tell all about your show."

Frances B.

"My family goes through hard times in our country but we found the hope show on your network. We listen with our phone. Miss Kandee knows how to bring a smile to my girls faces. Please send my letter to her. She is our favorite show. Laughter helps our family in our country."

Tami C.

"Ms. Campbell knows how to touch the heart. I never miss her show on the Brushwood network. I think her show is the best on there and encourage all to listen. Listen with your minds and hearts. She will teach you things you never knew. She has helped me with so much!"
